The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. A. Cannon from their son Prince.

Dear Mother:

Will write you all a few lines to let you know that I am getting along fine. Hope that this will find you the same. Well, we have changed our country. It sure is a fine place over here. All of the house are built out of rock and cement. I haven't seen any wooden houses on this side. We can't understand a thing the French people say.

I had the measles while I was on the transport coming over but I am feeling fine now. Tell all my people I would be delighted to hear from them. I want you to send me a letter a week for I want to hear from dear old Pickens county. Tell the girls I can't write to them this time but will write later. Tell grandpa I would like to hear from him and to know how old Brownie is. There is plenty of nice cattle here and they are all a dark red color. I would like to be there to go hunting, but I have a little business over here to attend to first. I will close as my letters are censored and I can't write much. I will be home when we lick the Kaiser.

Your loving son,
Pvt. James P. Cannon.

Because the railroads are needed for more serious work, present indications are that the circus will not make its appearance this year, and perhaps not until the big circus is ended over there.

Isn't it possible that some of the people who are worrying over army morals could do more good to humanity by directing the same amount of energy to other channels in which it might be useful?

Millers' Certificates Again Authorized

Farmers Who Have Their Own Corn Ground Into Meal or Corn Flour Will Not Be Required to Purchase Wheat Substitutes With Wheat Flour If They Secure Millers' Certificates and Surrender These to Merchants.

Columbia.—Under the rules of the Food Administration now in effect, under which four pounds of wheat flour may be purchased to one pound of substitutes, known as the 80-20 rule—this substituting the 50-50 rule—farmers may purchase flour, in this proportion, upon the surrender to their dealers of millers' certificates. The Food Administration has again authorized the use of millers' certificates, and county food administrators have been notified to this effect by William Elliott, Federal Food Administrator for South Carolina.

The farmer may, for instance, take his corn to the mill and have it ground into either meal or corn flour (not hominy or grits), secure a miller's certificate showing the number of pounds of corn or corn flour ground, take this certificate to the retail dealer in flour, surrender it to him, and buy from the dealer four pounds of wheat flour for each pound of corn flour or corn meal he has had ground, as shown on his certificate, without purchasing additional substitutes with his flour.

The only wheat flour substitutes which retailers may require their customers to accept in buying wheat flour under the rules of the Food Administration at present in effect, are corn flour, corn meal or barley flour. If the farmer has his own corn ground, and agrees to use such substitutes, and has his miller's certificate to show for it, he is not required to buy additional wheat flour substitutes, but the dealer is authorized to sell him, in the proper proportions, on the strength of millers' certificates.

The millers' certificate rule does not, however, permit merchants to sell flour on such certificates which show that the farmer has had his corn ground into hominy or grits.

MAY CHARGE ONLY REASONABLE PROFIT

Food Administration Protects Farmers by Forbidding Dealers in Wheat Mill Feeds to Charge More Than a Fixed Margin of Profit.

Columbia.—Retail dealers of wheat mill feeds, rice polish, rice bran, dried beet pulp and cotton seed products in South Carolina have been notified by the Food Administration that no more than a reasonable advance over the delivered price of any particular feeds sold shall be charged, under Rule 1 of Special License Regulations, No. 25, which became effective October 1.

Under these rules, the Food Administration announces margins in excess of the following schedule in case of mill feeds, rice feeds and dried beet pulp, will be considered excessive. The schedules given are maximum, and do not justify charges in excess of this customarily charged in any particular district or case where the lower charges will insure a reasonable profit.

"1. Where one or more farmers purchase in advance of delivery in full carloads, take delivery at car and pay cash when retail dealer is required to meet eight draft, $1.00 per ton, plus demurrage, if any.

"2. Where one or more farmers purchase in advance of delivery in full carloads, take delivery at car and pay cash on delivery, $1.50 per ton plus demurrage, if any.

"3. Where farmer purchases and takes delivery at car and pays for it on delivery in ton lots or more, but less than car lots, $2.00 per ton.

"4. Where farmer purchases and takes delivery at car and pays for it on delivery in lots less than one ton, $2.50 per ton.

"5. Sale ex-warehouse in lots of one ton or more, $4.00 per ton.

"6. Sale ex-warehouse in lots of less than one ton, $5.00 per ton.

"7. One dollar may be added to the foregoing margins when sale is made on credit, or at dealer's option the legal rate of interest may be charged.

"8. One dollar shall be deducted from the margins prescribed in 5 and 6 when the retailer buys on credit and the jobber's margin is thereby increased $1.00 per ton."

The above margins will also apply to the sale of cotton seed meal cake and hulls by retail feed dealers, except where different margins have been prescribed by the Food Administrator for the State.

"The United States Food Administration considers that in sales of feeding stuffs at retail the advance on any individual sale should not in any case exceed the purchase price delivered at warehouse door, plus 15 per cent. Where delivery is made to the consumer, reasonable cartage charges may be added. The Food Administration will, therefore, consider any sale of feeding stuffs in excess of this advance as a violation. This margin also applies to the sale of corn, oats, rye, or barley at retail as feed, but not to wheat mill feeds, cotton seed products, rice products, or dried beet pulp, for which special margins are prescribed by the above rule."

War Savings Stamps.

A report for the months of June, July, August and September shows that during those four months the purchase of War Savings Stamps in South Carolina fell below the amount pledged by the people of the state during the W. S. S. campaign last June.

While, as a whole, the state has failed there are several counties which have purchased more than they pledged, some having doubled their pledges. The following are the counties which have distinguished themselves by exceeding their pledges: Aiken, Beaufort, Charleston, Dillon, Greenville, Greenwood, Horry, Laurens, Lexington, Oconee, Pickens, Spartanburg, Union. The state committee feels that there is no reason why the majority of the counties in the state should lag behind these thirteen counties. An urgent plea is made that all who signed pledges to purchase W. S. S. in Oct. should make it a point to redeem the pledges promptly.

Tax Notice, 1918

Office of County Treasurer, Pickens County.

The books for the collection of State and County taxes will be open from October 15, 1918, to December 31, 1918.

Those who prefer to do so can pay in January, 1919, with 1 per cent additional. Those who prefer paying in February, 1919, can do so with 2 per cent additional. Those who prefer paying in March, 1919, to the 15th of said month can do so by paying an additional 7 per cent. After said date the books will close.

N. B.—Taxpayers owning property or paying taxes for others will please ask for tax receipt in each township or special school district in which he or they own property. This is very important, as there are so many school districts. Those who do not wish to come to the office can write me, not later than the 31st of December, and I will furnish them with the amount due and they can pay me by check, money order or registered mail. If stamps are sent do not send above 3 cent denomination, as I cannot use them. Please do not send me cash without registering same, as it is liable to get lost; if sent otherwise it must be at sender's risk.

Mules and Horses

Our last week's ad talked wagons. We have had a big run but still have an assortment of those good farm wagons, and also one more car of Mitchell wagons on the road. This needs no comment. But what we want to advertise now is the arrival of some fine mules and horses. They are attracting attention and selling to customers who have heretofore been hard to please. There are some good young mares with quality, and good mated and match teams of mare mules from big mules to small ones.

Be sure and see them.
We have a few buggies yet. See them if interested.
